

Service Learning Resources

DESE

http://dese.mo.gov/divcareered/service_learning_index2.htm

DESE Portal

<http://portal.kidscarecenter.com/sites/ServiceLearning/default.aspx>

Missouri Service-Learning Network

<http://mosln.org>

Your number one source for contacting regional coordinators, finding resources, and registering for Missouri Service-Learning conferences.

Operation Respect (Don't Laugh at Me)

<http://www.operationrespect.org/curricula/>

Founded by Peter Yarrow of the folk group Peter, Paul & Mary, the organization disseminates educational resources that are designed to establish a climate that reduces the emotional and physical cruelty some children inflict upon each other by behaviors such as ridicule, bullying and-in extreme cases-violence.

Jellybean Conspiracy

<http://jellybeanconspiracy.org/>

Jellybean produces a theatre show where kids with special needs find a place to belong and all kids learn the arts of compassionate action and thoughtful inclusion. Believing that the greatest triumph of the human spirit is kindness, we are bringing our life-changing program to thousands of students throughout the United States .

National Service-Learning Partnership

<http://nslp.convio.net/site/PageServer>

Learn & Service America's National Service-Learning Clearinghouse

<http://www.servicelearning.org/>

National Youth Leadership Council

<http://www.nylc.org/>

PeaceCorps- Service Learning

<http://www.peacecorps.gov/wvs/educators/servicelearning/>

This PeaceCorps site contains helpful information about how to select, plan, prepare, carry out, reflect on, and celebrate a service-learning project.

Brunswick Service-Learning Program

<http://www.brittonkill.k12.ny.us/servicelearning/>

Brunswick CSD is taking service-learning by storm. Service-learning is learning through doing service for others. Classes all over the school district work on projects throughout the year.

Signature Projects (Boston Teachnet)

<http://www.bostonteachnet.org/main.htm>

This site contains examples of standards based, academically rigorous, applied service-learning curricula. Made by teachers for teachers.

Facing the Future

<http://www.facingthefuture.org/default.aspx>

Find standards-based resources related to global issues and sustainable solutions, and find a framework to get started on service-learning projects, a database of action projects on global issues and sustainability, and examples of students taking action.

~~Know Hunger~~--- no longer available but try <http://www.kleinfoundation.org/action>

This site provides a middle/high school curriculum for core subjects as well as projects you can undertake or initiatives you can join. It also has wonderful information about the life of Gerda Weissman Klein, a Holocaust survivor who has dedicated herself to ending world hunger.

Presidential Service Award

<http://www.presidentialserviceawards.org/>

Recognize students for their service. This site contains all you need to participate in the Presidential Service Award program.

Human Rights Educational Associates

<http://www.hrea.org/>

Human Rights Education Associates (HREA) is an international non-governmental organization that supports human rights learning; the training of activists and professionals; the development of educational materials and programming; and community-building through on-line technologies.

Amnesty International

<http://www.amnestyusa.org/>

This site provides information about important global, humanitarian causes and suggestions for supporting them.

PeaceJam

<http://peacejam.org>

<http://198.209.18.226/advancement/peacejam.asp>

PeaceJam provides a curriculum for all levels about Nobel Peace Prize laureates and their accomplishments. It contains peace lessons for all ages. High school students have the opportunity to attend a conference where they meet a Nobel Peace Prize laureate and present him/her with their plan for a peace/service-learning project.

Learn & Serve America

<http://learnandserve.gov/>

The government site, which will direct you to resources and provide you with grant information.

One Dollar for Life

<http://odfl.org>

ODFL is a non-profit founded to address third world poverty by collecting just one dollar from each US high school student! If each high school student gave just one dollar we could build 1000 schools in the developing world each year! In their first year, the spring of 2006, they collected $9000 and built a school that summer in Kenya for 45 students who had been attending school in a horse barn.

In Our Village

<http://www.inourvillage.org/>

This site describes a project in Africa through which students write books about their own culture to share with others.

Change the World by Monday

<http://changetheworldbymonday.com/>

A school in Estonia creates a project to help in Darfur.

Heber Hunt Elementary

http://web.sedalia.k12.mo.us/hunt/heberandzimmerman/HHSpecialEvents/HHService_Learning/HHService_Learning_Main.htm

Wonderful examples of service-learning projects.

Lift

<http://lift.nylc.org/>

This resource from NYLC has video clips of service-learning projects.

Learning to Give

<http://learningtogive.org/genonltg/servicetoolkits/>

This site has ready-made lessons that teachers and students can use.

Service Learning Web Resources

<http://goodcharacter.com/SERVICE/webresources.html>

Portal site to lots more great web resources.